Birds with No Passports

John Brown

1 June–27 July

Based in Belfast, John Brown is a poet, visual artist, and editor from Limavady. He has exhibited in Ireland, the UK, and curated shows in the Netherlands. His exhibition Birds with No Passports features drawings, collage, mixed media, and sculptures exploring differences between birds and humans in love, death, migration, and language. With humour, John questions human superiority, pondering if humans can make birdsongs or if birds can speak a language.

We are the Dreamweavers

3 - 31 August

August Children's Month Community

Exhibition Launch

Saturday 3 August | 2pm | Everyone welcome

Refreshments provided

Featuring a giant loom led by spinner Lorna Shannon and children engaged with Roe Valley Residents Association, this project emphasises children sharing future visions and invites the community to add their dreams. Using mixed media and recycled materials, each contribution enriches the loom, creating a shared tapestry of hope.

Join us in weaving a collective dream one strand at a time

➤ “An inspiring exhibition!”

Luminosity

3 - 31 August

August Children’s Month Community

Exhibition Launch

Saturday 3 August | 2pm | Everyone welcome | Refreshments provided

Artist Alana Barton explores adolescence, relationships and contemporary issues with participating Limavady teenagers. Luminosity symbolizes teens’ inner light and potential. Using diverse techniques and materials, the exhibition captures their raw, honest perspectives, reflecting their hopes, dreams, and concerns. Join us for an intimate exploration of youth creativity. In 2019, Alana won Northern Ireland Young Artist of the Year and received the SIAP General Arts award.
