WELCOME TO OUR SEPT-DEC 2022 ARTS GUIDE!

We are delighted to present our first Arts Guide since 2020 to showcase the fabulous activities we have lined up this Autumn/Winter - available to download from our website straight to your smartphone, tablet or computer or pop in to pick up a printed version.

We have amazing exhibitions including Istanbul Alphabet by artist/writers James Hughes & John Brown. Our Danny Boy auditorium is the place to be for fine live music, courtesy of local girl, now internationally acclaimed, Cara Dillon, and we are delighted to welcome Thomas Gabriel, the talented grandson of Johnny Cash, to Limavady.

All this, plus more live music from LORE, The Illegals, Limavady Big Band and the Soda Popz, film, community initiatives, and workshops galore for all. Happy Browsing!

"Makes me proud of the place. Excellent."

ROE VALLEY ARTS & CULTURAL CENTRE

Our vision is to be a vital and vibrant celebration of art, culture and community creativity where everyone is welcome to enjoy, learn and participate.

100 OBJECTS FOR 100 YEARS

27 August–17 December

This exhibition features an eclectic display of objects, selected from Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council's museum collections in Ballycastle, Ballymoney, Coleraine and Limavady, which help to tell the story of the area during the past 100 years. The objects previously featured in an online exhibition which was set up as part of Council's NI100 programme to mark the centenary of Northern Ireland.

"I viewed the exhibition and thought – AMAZING."

ISTANBUL ALPHABET

John Brown and James Hughes
27 August–28 September

EXHIBITION LAUNCH: Please join us for the launch on Saturday 27 August, 12noon–1pm. All welcome.

Istanbul Alphabet is based on photographs taken by James Hughes over eight years covering the city's back streets, buildings, doorways, people, mosques, interiors and street vendors. This photographic record became the basis for collaboration with poet John Brown on a book and exhibition exploring the city, its people, history and culture. Hughes selected 29 photographs, one for each letter of the Turkish alphabet, which provided a framework to explore the relations between people and city, word and image, photographer/writer and viewer/reader.

Brown began in-depth research over three years into Turkish literature, poetry, history and culture, into the ways the city had been represented previously in photographs and other images, in order to write this informed but new text on the city and these photographs.

In avoiding stereotypical tourist images, in refusing to recycle past cliches and postcards, this book/exhibition excavates the city from a contemporary perspective, gets under its skin; it asks if we can say what we see in a photograph or construct a narrative or idea of a place or people through images and texts. The question of our capacity to say or see, or to say what we see, goes to the heart of an experience heightened by the pandemic.

Educational activities for schools will accompany this exhibition. Please visit our website roevalleyarts.com for further information or contact Esther Alleyne, Arts and Cultural Facilities Officer, via Esther.Alleyne@causewaycoastandglens.gov.uk

“Great insight into art for schools.”

PÚCA IN THE MACHINE

Shane Finan, Alannah Robins
and Niamh Fahy

8 October–5 November

EXHIBITION LAUNCH: Please join us for the launch on Saturday 8 October, 12noon–1pm. All welcome.

ARTIST TALK: FREE artist talk with Shane Finan on Myth-ecology and Technology, Saturday 5 November, 12noon–1pm. All welcome.

In the 1930s in west Wicklow, Ireland, the rivers in the area of Poulaphuca were dammed and the valley flooded to create a new hydroelectric power station. The human residents of the valley were evicted prior to the flooding and their voices and the stories of those evictions have been recorded in numerous histories.

In undertaking such a massive engineering project, homes of many wildlife were also inevitably destroyed. This exhibition is an exploratory collaboration between artists Alannah Robins, Niamh Fahy and Shane Finan who have worked on new interpretations, creating artworks that respond to the unique and unusual history, mythology and ecology of the Poulaphuca Reservoir.

Fahy's responses have explored the edges and borders of the lake, where the shore meets the water and what this boundary suggests. Robins considers the shadows, reflections and other spaces of a submerged and un-lived valley. Finan's work straddles these ideas, as painted memory of place combines with electricity and the question of myth beneath the water.

"How wonderful to see real art in Limavady. Fantastic!"

INSIDE OUT

Pavestone Collective

19 November–31 December

EXHIBITION LAUNCH: Please join us for the launch on Saturday 19 November, 11:30am–12:30pm. All welcome.

Established in 2011 by clients who attend the Pavestone Centre, Coleraine, the collective was created through 'Leisure Quest', a programme designed to rehabilitate adults with physical or mental health conditions. Members of the Pavestone Collective have met to produce creative art for many years embracing all forms of visual arts for self-expression, skills development, and therapeutic value. Having adapted to producing their creative work through two very challenging years with enthusiasm and imagination, the artists present new work reflecting on our post-covid world.

EVENT

The Illegals return to Roe Valley Arts and Cultural Centre! Let us take you back to 1980 when The Eagles and Fleetwood Mac served-up two of the best live double-albums of all time.

Widely regarded as one of the best live tribute acts in the country, The Illegals are back in 2022 with their ever-popular, classic-rock revival show replicating the sound of the world's two greatest rock bands.

The best of two legendary bands in one night and a little more besides with hit songs like 'Hotel California', 'Go Your Own Way', 'Life In The Fast Lane', 'Don't Stop, Take It Easy', 'Say That You Love Me', 'Last Resort', 'The Chain' and 'New Kid In Town'.

This is a night of music not to be missed!

"Emotion evoking and something for the imagination in every bit of space."

THOMAS GABRIEL

Thursday 20 October, 8pm

Tickets £17 full, £15 concession

This event will have a limited bar and tiered seating.*

Thomas Gabriel, eldest grandson of Johnny Cash, is looking to the future while also honouring the Cash family history. Undoubtedly influenced by his iconic grandfather, Thomas seamlessly blends Country, Americana, and Rock to create his personal sound and is carving his very own path.

Thomas had a front row seat to one of the greatest and most influential musicians of the twentieth century and spent a lot of time with his grandfather.

It wasn't long before a love of music and creating it became a passion for him, "Growing up, he would show me chords, listen to music I'd written, and ask me about the songs I wrote. I would watch his live shows and if I had a question about how he did something, he'd show me. He was always real supportive".

Released in 2018, Gabriel's debut album Long Way Home features songs which are swampy, bluesy, redemptive and vulnerable, covering his drug addiction on 'Slipping Away', his prison time on the tracks '1-9-7-4' and 'Cell' and how a broken soul can be renewed by love with 'Come to Me'. It's been a rough road... a road less travelled, but when you meet Thomas Gabriel, you'll soon learn that each and every twist and turn has taken him from the lowest of valleys to the highest of mountain tops.

His songwriting is always personal, and his stories are always amazing.

"It's a stunning venue and should provide a much needed cultural focus for Limavady."
