Once Upon a Toy

10 October - 23 January

This Museums Service exhibition looks at the history of childhood toys and includes a display of vintage items from the museum's own collections, such as 1940s board games, 1960s dolls prams and wooden dolls house.

Limavady Art Group

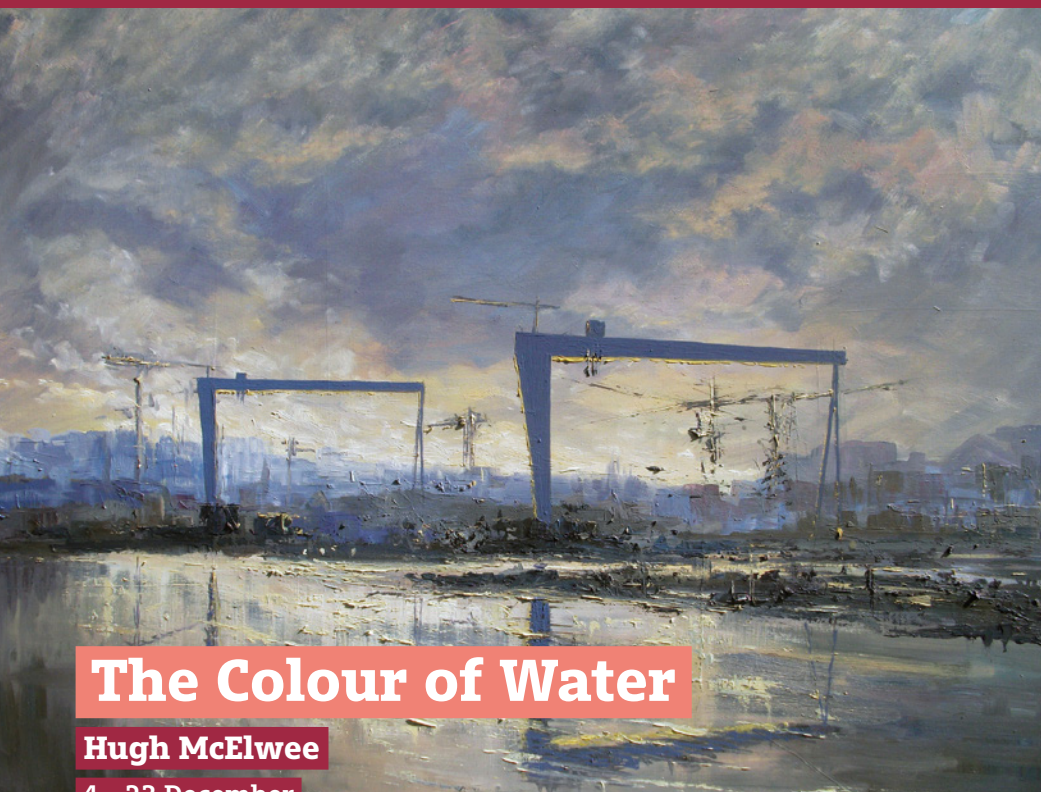

4 - 23 December

Launch | Friday 4 December |

7.30pm | All Welcome

The annual Limavady Art Group exhibition showcases an inspiring collection of work by talented local artists who have been meeting weekly to paint at the Arts Centre for many years. Featuring a wide range of styles, subjects and media, the exhibition celebrates the creativity, skill and artistic diversity of the group's members and is the perfect opportunity to buy unique Christmas gifts and support local creatives.

The Colour of Water

Hugh McElwee

4 - 23 December

Launch | Thursday 3 December | 7.30pm | All welcome

Limavady artist Hugh McElwee draws inspiration from the landscapes, coastline and ever-changing light of the North Coast. His paintings reflect a close observation of the natural environment, capturing fleeting moments of atmosphere, colour and reflection through a distinctive and sensitive approach to painting. The artist concentrates on the use of soft light and complementary colours to create form and shape. When reflected this can alter how we see the colour of water.

ASSOCIATED WORKSHOP

Landscape Painting | Thursday 10 December | 7-9pm |

Cost £35 full, £30 concession

Join Hugh for a special landscape painting workshop inspired by his exhibition. Discover his techniques for capturing the light, colour and atmosphere of the local landscape in this relaxed, practical session.
